Imagine, Create, Enjoy

Bits From The Board

We had no general or board meetings in April, due to the high school show at the museum. That show was very fine; hope everyone got by to see it.

The Juried Show opened on May 3rd with a well attended reception. The pieces looked wonderful--- thanks to all artists who put themselves out there for the public to view. Our judge said he was so impressed by the pieces that he had a difficult time selecting awards. Thanks to our show director, Tom Britton, for another successful event.

This month will be our last general meeting until September, so please try to put it on your calendar. A board meeting will follow

There will be an Art in the Park weekend in June. Hope you can get to see it.

Enjoy the summer and an artful life.

-Carolyn Powell, President

Monthly Meeting

This month we will have our last meeting before the summer break. We will have the judge's notes with comments on most of the art that is in the show for everyone to look at.

Patricia Mariano will be our presenter for the May 20th meeting at the museum.

Artist's Statement

Fabric started my artistic journey. Learning how to make a difficult medium bend to me was frustrating and fun. It combines the cerebral and the physical, which is what attracts me to it. Computers were another draw, also bending digital images to my will. And as I write this, I can see it is a way to have control in a world where a woman may suddenly find she has none.

After accumulating a stash of fabric and a sewing machine I dove into all aspects of quilting but quickly moved beyond traditional quilting. I developed my own unique artistic style collaging fabric, paper, digital images to express my life and experiences.

Now I find myself moving away from fabric into mixed media occasionally but every day I find myself sitting for hours at my computer or iPad working on digital art. I love breaking an image and making something totally new.

- Pat Mariano

Thanks

We have already had a couple of sales and a lot of visitors to the show. It seems that we have had another successful show. The Juried Show is a success due to the work of Pat Goodwin and her staff at the Art Museum. It is a pleasure and a great honor to be associated with the Museum and such great people. We are truly blessed.

We also want to thank Collectors Café and Art & Frame for donating prizes for the show.
