July 2018

Imagine, Create, Enjoy

Bits From The Board

The Guild is on its summer schedule until general meetings resume in September. There was no board meeting in June, however the group will meet in July (22nd) and August (19th) at the art museum. All are welcome to attend and help continue to build the guild.

Our Art in the Park events will gear up in the Fall, as will the Home Show and the annual members show. Check the newsletter for dates.

Wishing everyone a good summer to recharge and create.

-Carolyn Powell, President

Monthly Meeting

There will be NO member meetings until September. We are on summer break, but that does not mean that we are "goofing off". We are still working for this guild. In fact, we will have a Board meeting on July 22 at the museum at 1:30 pm (after that, we will goof-off a little bit). Any member who is interested may attend.

IMPORTANT -

A couple of months ago we became aware of an excellent opportunity for our Guild to make up for monetary losses from the shows and to fund our projects. The Belk Charity Sale is that opportunity and, with a little effort on our part we can reap big rewards. We are looking for members who are willing to give a little time during the last half of the month of August. What follows will help to explain what it is, who benefits, and how it works.

The Charity Sale is a private, four-hour sale dedicated to supporting local non-profit organizations. Participating charities will have the opportunity to raise money for their organization by selling event tickets at $5 each and keeping 100% of ticket proceeds. Ticket holders will receive 20% - 70% off of Belk purchases storewide, including special savings on rarely-discounted brands. It is a win-win! Belk's two Charity Sale events in 2017 together raised more than $11 million for thousands of participating charitable organizations located in Belk's 16-state market area.

The Belk Charity Sale is set for Saturday, August 25th, and JoAnne Utterback is coordinating the event for us. Please contact her at (843)446-3830 and sign up to sell some tickets.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is Charity Sale?

Charity Sale is a private, four-hour sale dedicated to supporting local schools and non-profit organizations. Participating charities will have the opportunity to raise money for their organization while private sale customers receive 15% - 70% off Belk purchases storewide, including special savings on rarely-discounted brands. Charity sale ticket can be redeemed for $5 off your first purchase during charity sale hours and pre-sale. Limited exclusions apply.

When and where will this event be held?

Charity Sale will be held on Saturday, August 25th, from 6 – 10 a.m. in every Belk store.

How do organizations raise funds?

Participating charities sell $5 tickets to this event. One ticket may be redeemed per customer. Organizations keep 100% of the proceeds from every ticket sold. By purchasing a ticket, customers can support a worthy cause and enjoy storewide discounts during the private sale. Charities are encouraged to promote the benefits of customer preselling in advance of the event as well.

Do organizations have to pay a fee to participate?

No. There is absolutely no cost to participating organizations. Belk provides tickets, flyers and other promotional tools to participating organizations for free.

Does Belk keep a percentage of the ticket sales?

No. All ticket sale proceeds go directly to the participating charities.

Are there any specific rules regarding ticket sales?

Yes:

- Tickets provided by Belk to participating organizations are to be treated as cash and sold uniformly for $5 each.

- Tickets cannot be given away, discounted or reproduced.
- Only ONE charity sale ticket per ONE customer may be redeemed for $5 from the customer's first purchase. DO NOT redeem more than one ticket per transaction.
- Any un-sold tickets must also be returned to your Belk Charity Sale representative.

Can organizations sell tickets in their Belk store?

Yes. You may work with your local Belk store to inquire about specific opportunities to sell tickets on behalf of your organization in the store.

Are there any restrictions on who can sell Charity Sale tickets on behalf of our organization?

No. Tickets can be sold by organization staff or volunteers. However, all organizations are responsible for their own financial and numerical accounting of all tickets.

What does volunteering in the store entail to receive additional payout of tickets sold at Belk registers?

Charities can send staff or volunteers to their designated Belk store to sell charity sale tickets before the event, sort merchandise, clear go back racks, clean sales floor areas and retrieve pre-sell merchandise for customers on the day of the event.

Can customers still shop the private sale if unable to attend on Saturday, August 25th?

Yes. Customers are welcome to reserve their desired merchandise for the event beginning on Monday, August 13th. Simply present your Charity Sale ticket to a Belk associate and ask them for details on reserving merchandise.

How can we spread the word about this event?

Belk promotes the event through a comprehensive advertising and public relations campaign across the entire Southeast. Each organization is encouraged to spread the word on their own via newsletter, email blasts or other publicity vehicles. Grassroots efforts are welcomed and encouraged.

Show / Event Info

The Myrtle Beach Art Museum
May 29th – September 2nd, 2018

The Water's Fine is a group exhibition of work by five exceptional contemporary artists working in black-and-white photography and hyperrealistic painting, all who depict imagery of people in water. Participating artists include Samantha French (Brooklyn, NY), Carl Kerridge (Myrtle Beach, SC), Wayne Levin (Honolulu, HI), Matt Story (New York, NY) and Charles Williams (Charlotte, NC). Museum guests will see a variety of captivating, large-scale depictions of people swimming, floating, diving into, contemplating getting into and turning flips in water. Photography will be juxtaposed with paintings in ways that present striking aesthetic relationships between imagery.

Continuing the "watery" theme this summer, the Art Museum will open a second exhibition next month, Making Waves: A Drew Brophy Retrospective, featuring paintings, surfboards and a variety of other art forms from the international renowned surf artist. The exhibit opens June 23.

Admission to the Art Museum is free at all times but donations are welcomed.

Congratulations

To everyone who sold artwork during our 21st Annual Juried Show at the Myrtle Beach Art Museum. You should have received a check for your portion on the sale. If you haven't received it yet, you should get it soon. They were scheduled to go out at the end of June.

Opportunity

ART Burger • Sushi • Bar

We have a huge display of art from all local artists. We would like to encourage any local artist to reach out to us if they would like the opportunity to put some of your work on the walls.

All local Artists that choose to participate should sign up at ART. The featured Artist of the week will be chosen by rotation of the participating guilds. Order of sign up, quality of work, and pieces to be displayed will all be considered when choosing the Artist of the week.

If you know someone that might be interested please let them know about this opportunity.

One More Thing...

Enjoy the summer. A good way to beat the heat is to go look at the water themed works at the museum...it's air-conditioned! You can also head to the air-conditioned studio. Stay cool & have fun.

There is another way to keep cool and do something positive. Get involved in the Belk Charity Day ticket sale. If you shop at Belk, or if you know someone who does, I understand that the $5 ticket provides access to a private sale, $5 toward a purchase and the sales are incredible (including many items which are very rarely discounted, if ever). Help the guild, help your friends, and maybe help yourself (buy a ticket...get a DEAL). We hope that this will be a great success. It will help tremendously if some of you can work a two hour shift at the Belk store.

Thanks to JoAnne Utterback for agreeing to coordinate this effort. If you are willing to help contact JoAnne at (843)446-3830.
