September 2018

Imagine, Create, Enjoy

Bits from The Board

It's hard to believe, but the summer is over, except for hot and humid weather. I hope it has been a productive time for you.

The Board met August 19th at the Art Museum. We noted the success of our first effort at participating in Belk's Charity Day event. Thanks to all who helped and contributed. JoAnne Utterback reported that Pat Yost and Joy Meyer were very effective at manning the entry table. Natalie gave us more details on the SC Arts grant that will help with our daily operations costs.

We finalized a revision of award amounts for the 2019 Juried Show. Apparently last year there was an erroneous perception that there were no monetary awards for that show. Nothing could be farther from the truth: Not only is it the finest juried annual show in our area, the rewards for entering are high. The past show, for example, not only paid handsomely for winning entries, but eleven pieces sold as well.

We are in the process of setting up an electronic payment option for future shows and hope to widen our entry pool as well.

General meetings will resume this month after our summer hiatus. Dr. Larry Bunch has a fine list of presenters lined up, starting with Breta O'Masters, who does amazing art incorporating mirrors. These meetings are free and open to the public, continuing our more than 4 decades of bringing art to the community.

The Guild is now in the best shape it has been for many years. To continue this growth, we need more of you to step up and serve on the board and help with your ideas and, yes, sweat.

Hope to see you out and about at our upcoming events, MB Home Show, Art in the Park, and the members' show.

-Carolyn Powell, President

Show / Event Info

The Myrtle Beach Art Museum

Collection Connections | A Visual Exploration of Southern Heritage is an exhibition of approximately 40 works from the Art Museum’s rich permanent collections, including antique maps and historical prints, works on paper by Southern artists, including William H. Clarke, Cassandra Gillens and Jonathan Green, fabric quilts and photographs. Using Southern-history-themed works of art from our collections, the exhibition uses the visual arts to teach and explore the history and culture of South Carolina and our entire region and is designed for both school students and adults alike.

Easton Selby

“Rootwork”

9/27 – 12/16

Born in 1979 and raised in central Mississippi by a family who encouraged art-making, Easton Selby received his BFA from Delta State University in Cleveland, MS, where he first discovered fine art photography. At the recommendation of his uncle, a commercial photographer, Selby took his first photography class, during which he developed his affinity for the medium. Selby went on to complete a MFA in visual arts from Clemson University (SC), where he studied under photographer Sam Wang. His current work centers around themes of religion, Southern folklore and myth. He resides in Conway, SC, where he is the head of the visual arts department at Coastal Carolina University. Selby’s exhibition RootWork explores the essence of the photographic medium through his experiences with religion in the South.

The Limited Palette

9/27 – 12/16

The Limited Palette is an exploration of 18 art objects—all created within the last 50 years—from the Art Museum’s Permanent Collection that exhibit minimal use of color. Objects range from two-dimensional drawings, paintings and prints to three-dimensional ceramics, both functional and conceptual. Artists represented include Alice Ballard, Genevieve Willcox Chandler, Linda Fantuzzo, Nina Gelardi-Shedd, Chris Hanson, Steven Jordan, Lynda Karl, Elizabeth Keller, Kincheloe, Jean McWhorter, Alex Powers, Chris Ritsch, Allan Taylor, Martha Thomas and Charles Williams.

Belk Charity Sale

The Charity sale concluded and we did sell some tickets. We also shared in the profits of the sale. It could have been better with more participation, but we gave it a good first pass. There will be another sale in 2019 and I hope that we will be able to take full advantage of that opportunity. It is a fantastic opportunity. Thanks to Belk Department Store for providing it. Also, thanks to JoAnne Utterback for leading our efforts to raise money for the guild. Thanks to those who helped sell tickets at the store and elsewhere. Your efforts are greatly appreciated.

One More Thing... Actually 2 Things

I took the time to mention our show awards in this newsletter because we have recently become aware of some rumors circulating that suggested that we do not give cash awards. Actually, we always give cash awards in our Member's and Juried shows.

I haven't made an effort to publicize the amounts of the awards in the past; because art, not money, is the focus of these shows. I am, however, changing this approach and I will begin publishing the award information. It may be that, for some, incentive is needed to create great art.

Whatever it takes Waccamaw Arts & Crafts Guild will always promote the arts. Art is an important part of our lives, no matter who you are. As artists, we provide much more than “eye candy”...we provide thought-provoking, therapeutic, esthetically pleasing works to make the world a better place. That is soooo cool.....right?

Here is another cool thing. I recently received an email from Sea Haven, a home for homeless and abused children. They needed art supplies for the children. This shelter home is entirely supported by donations and they do a lot with very limited resources.

The matter was presented to the Board and WACG responded to their call for help. Kathy and Carolyn went shopping for supplies and filled their needs. Kathy and I took them out to the home (photo below) and they were very excited to receive them. Art therapy will help these children, and we are glad to be part of it.

See you at the September meeting...

Tom Britton, Editor
WACG Show & Communications Director
