Bits From The Board

I am hoping everyone is having a great summer. You all may have noticed that the WACG Facebook Page has been posting content about other Art experiences and shows that are available. The Arts community really needs to lean on each other to get information out about shows and workshops, I am trying my best to post these opportunities.

Keep your eyes peeled for upcoming Newsletters as there is always good information for the Guild members.

The Board will be meeting on August 3rd, 10:00 am at the Museum .

Please, remember to keep being creative.

Thank you,

Robert S. Walton
President

Monthly Meeting

There will be no member meeting this month.

The Board of Directors will meet at 10:00 am in the second-floor classroom.

Watch for any special events in the newsletter, and news concerning upcoming events when we resume our regular schedule in September.

A New Show & Communications Director

After several interviews, we have finally arranged for a new Director. We are pleased to announce that Leslie Danlefs, a WACG member, will assume the position of Show & Communications Director in the very near future. Leslie has prior experience as a Show Director with another guild. We believe that she will do a great job for us. I want to thank everyone who participated in the process of finding my replacement and to those who applied for the position.

Gallery Search

For years now we have been looking for an appropriate space that we could call home. We have looked at numerous properties over the years, but none of them worked for our purposes. We learned from these efforts that any prospective property must be in a good location, be adequate in size and that any property will probably require a lot of work to convert it for our needs.

When a plan for the downtown Art and Innovation District in Myrtle Beach was announced, we became energized and began looking at properties in the area back in about 2022. So far, several possibilities have been reviewed, but nothing has worked out yet.

We are asking all of our members to be alert to any potential properties that may become available and let us know what they are, where they are and contact information if known.

Any help will be appreciated. We need to assure that the Guild moves forward and continues to serve the art community in the Grand Strand area.

Call for Artists

The Island Arts Council for Carolina and Kure Beaches is leading a public sculpture project, Venus Flytrap on Parade, that will install 10 to 15 artist-painted statues around our island. The statues will be installed March 2025 for the Carolina Beach Centennial Celebration.

We are seeking regional artists to participate in the event. Artists will be asked to submit designs to embellish, decorate, or paint fiberglass statues for the exhibition. Designs will be selected based upon creativity, craftsmanship, use of materials, the ability to appeal to all ages, sustainability and durability. Information about the project is available at <https://islandartscouncil.net/venus-flytrap-on-parade>

Participating artists will receive a stipend and a portion of final sales. When things happen... June – August submit proposals, May to October painting, November to January 2025 prep for installation, February statues installed, March – September statues on display, October – November auction.

One More Thing -

We will soon start our fall schedule. Sometime later in August, I will ask for people interested in participating in the Home Show. Also, our Member's Judged Show is coming up in October. The prospectus for that show will be sent out in September. Get ready to get busy as we start our monthly general meetings again.
